

137 Pillars Branded Bangkok Trading Post Bistro & Deli Opens First Non-Hotel Based Branch in Market Place Nang Linchee

Bangkok, November 2018: The trendy Bangkok Trading Post Bistro & Deli created by and located in the luxury boutique hotel 137 Pillars Suites & Residences is getting a highly anticipated second outlet in Nang Linchee this month. The new branch, which joins some of the city's other popular eateries at the Market Place Nang Linchee, will officially open its doors on at 7:30 am on Saturday 8 December 2018.

After their extraordinary success with the historical 137 Pillars House Chiang Mai, the owners took their passion and ambition for hospitality and service further to curate an exceptional all-day dining experience with the Bangkok Trading Post Bistro & Deli. Once home to the Borneo Trading Company Limited, a trading outpost, the heritage teak house in Chiang Mai was where expats would meet and trade in those days. The Bangkok Trading Post Bistro & Deli takes its inspiration from it as a place for today's urban communities to meet up over good food, drinks and farm to table dining and fun events.
